Writing Reading Maths What will the children learn? What will the children learn? What will the children learn? The children will spend the first four weeks reading The children will be reading a poetry text, The children will learn about multiplication and the book "Stone Age Boy", building on the narrative 'The Wild Way Home' by Sophie Kirtley. division writing they completed in Autumn 1. They will also read the book 'The Street Beneath My Feet' and What will the children be able to do? What will the children be able to do? write an explanation text. The children will be able to analyse poems and Find multiples of 2 discuss how it makes them feel. Find multiples of 5 -They will recognise features of poems to try and Find multiples of 10 What will the children be able to do? The children will be able to identify key narrative make predictions. Multiply and divide by 3 features and begin to add these to their own writing. They will retrieve information from the text to Multiply and divide by 4 They will also be able to write an explanation text identify how phrases capture the reader's Multiply and divide by 8 with a specific writing frame. imagination. What will the children remember? What will the children remember? The methods we learn to multiply and divide. What will the children remember? The children will remember the features of poems They will use remember the inspiration text for the narrative ("Stone Age Boy"). They will also remember such as rhyming and non-rhyming poems. They key features of an explanation text such as headings, would have spent time reading a variety of poems. Suggested Family Maths Activities (from booklet): introduction and labelled diagrams. • Chocolate Bar puzzle • Crossword Activity pt 1 & 2 Bug Football PSHE RE Stone Age Year 3 - Autumn 2 What will the children learn? What kind of world did Jesus want? What will the children be able to do? To make clear links between the calling of the first

What will the children be able to do? Talk about how and why it is important to keep safe in and outside of school.

What will the children remember? The importance of hygiene and protecting ourselves.

Key Vocabulary

Hygiene, safety, cleanliness, care, medicine, hazards, protect, unsafe, uncomfortable, emergency.

2024

disciples and how Christians today try to follow Jesus and be 'fishers of people'. What will the children remember? To make simple links between People of God and how some Christians choose to live their own lives and in their church communities.

Key Vocabulary

Jesus, God, disciple, bible, faith, Christian.

What will the children learn?

Keeping safe; at home and school; our bodies;

hygiene: medicines and household products

Science - Rocks and Soil   History   Computing   Music     What will the children learn?   What will the children learn?   Children will consumption and discourn how forsils are made.   Science - Rocks and Soil   Music   Children will consumption and discourn how forsils are made.   Science - Rocks and Soil   Children will consumption and discourn how forsils are made.   Children will consumption and discourn how forsils are made.   Children will consumption and discourn how forsils are made.   Children will consumption and discourn how forsils are made.   Children will consumption and discourn how forsils and output. Children will also learn and output. Children will also learn and output. Children will also learn and output. Children will consumption and discourn how computers are a connected and other metwork features.   At the end of term, parents and carers will be able to do?     What will the children remember?   Exercise the work will the children remember?   Children will construct will be able to do?   Minat will the children remember?     Key Yocabulary   Key Yocabulary   Key Yocabulary   What will the children learn?   What will the children learn?   Children will construct will be able to do?     What will the children learn?   Key Yocabulary   Key Yocabulary   Minat will the children learn?   Children key Yocabulary   Key Yocabulary   Key Yocabulary   Minat will the children learn?   Children					1
Classify rocks, recognise different soils and discover how fossils are made. What waid different about living in the Stone Age, the Bronze Age and the Iron Age? Farming and community caused a huge shift in how humans lived. The children will laso learn about by computers are connected and output. Children will also learn about by computers are connected indentifier net by a specialist teacher: Joy White. The shifter m.f. These lessons will be led by a specialist teacher: Joy White.   What will the children remember? Examining soils, making fossils and investigating and touching fossils and rocks. What will the children remember? What will the children remember? Our visit to Butser Farm and seeing different types of homes from different types of homes from thoreonology. French What will t	Science – Rocks and Soil			Computing		Music and discover how fossils are made. Stone Age, the Bronze Age and the Iron Age? Farming and community caused a hoge shift in how humans lived. devices with a focus on input, process and output. Children will also learn also the work features. An the children be able to do? At the children be able to do? Say French will be able to ac? Say French will be able to ac? At the children be able to do? Say French will be able to ac? Say French	What will the children learn?	What will the	e children learn?	What will the children learn?		Children will continue learning to play
What will the children be able to do? Age? Farming and community caused and the children reamber? and output children will also learn about how computers are connected and other network features. the end of term, parents and carers will be invited to a performance!   What will the children reamber? Understand the difference between rubers and tocks, soil, grainy, soft, hard, reads of the sources of the so	Classify rocks, recognise different soils	What was di	fferent about living in the	The children will learn about	digital	a brass instrument this half term.
What will the children be able to do? Age? Farming and community caused a Mad with children be able to do? and output will be observations, ask questions and look at similarities and differences. and output will be able to do? teacher: Joy White.   What will the children remember? Examining soils, making fossils and investigating and touching lots of rocks. What will the children remember?   What will the children strom different types of homes from different types different types different types different	and discover how fossils are made.	Stone Age, th	he Bronze Age and the Iron	devices with a focus on input	, process	These lessons will be led by a specialist
What will the children be able to do? huge shift in how humans lived. about how computers are connected At the end of term, parents and carers   What will the children remember? Indertify key time periods on a timeline. What will the children remember? At the end of term, parents and carers   What will the children remember?   Our visit to Butser Farm and seeing different types of homes from different, eavies of homes from different types of homes fro		Age? Farmin	g and community caused a	and output. Children will also	learn
Make observations, ask questions and look at similarities and differences. What will the children the balle to do? Identify key time periods on a timeline. Understand the difference between "then" and now. and other network features. will be invited to a performance!   What will the children remember? Dur visit to Butser Farm and seeing different types of homes from different periods of Prehistory. What will the children remember? What will the children remember? What will the children remember? What will the children remember? What will the children remember? What will the children remember? What will the children neame and why computers are connected. Age. What will the children seale to do? Children will be able to a performance!   What will the children remember? What will the children learn? Children will learn how to weave and create a storage unit. Mat will the children neam? Children will be able to do? Pupils will be able to describe and demonstrate the way our bodies move when participating in dicreate a 3D object using their design. What will the children remember? What will the children reme	What will the children be able to do?	-		-
Iook at similarities and differences. Identify key time periods on a timeline. Understand the difference between   What will the children remember? Children will be able to compare digital   Examining soils, making fossils and investigating and touching lots of rocks. What will the children remember?   Our visit to Butser Farm and seeing different types of homes from different periods of Prehistory. What will the children remember?   What will the children learn? What will the children remember?   What will the children learn? What will the children learn?   What will the children learn? What will the children learn?   What will the children learn? Children will learn how to weave and create a storage unit.   What will the children learn? Children will learn how to play hockey.   What will the children remember? Children will learn how to play work wen participate in athletic events.   Children will be able to do? What will the children remember?   What will the children remember? What will the children nearn?   Children will be able to weave using their own design. What will the children nearnember?   What will the children remember? What will the children remember?   What will the children remember? What will the children nearn?   Children will be able to do?? <		-		-
What will the children remember?   What will the children remember?   What will the children remember?   Our visit to Butser Farm and seeing different types of homes from different periods of Prehistory.   Key Vocabulary   Minerals, rocks, soil, grainy, soft, hard, clay, sandy, fossil, observations,   DT - Weaving   What will the children learn?   Children will learn how to weave and create a storage unit.   What will the children remember?   What will the children be able to do?   What will the children learn?   Children will learn how to weave and create a storage unit.   What will the children remember?   What will the children learn?   Children will be able to do?   What will the children learn?   Children will be able to do?   What will the children learn?   Children will learn how to weave and create a storage unit.   What will the children remember?   What will the children hean?   Childre
What will the children remember? "then" and now. Children will be able to compare digital diverse and discuss the benefits of connecting devices to a network. Mat will the children remember?   Key Vocabulary Our visit to Butser Farm and seeing different types of homes from different periods of Prehistory. What will the children remember? What will the children remember? What will the children nemember?   Minerals, rocks, soil, grainy, soft, hard, clay, sandy, fossil, observations, Key Vocabulary What will the children nemember? What will the children nemember? What will the children nemember?   What will the children learn? Children will learn how to paly hockey. What will the children learn? What will the children learn?   Children will learn how to weave and create a storage unit. What will the children learn? What will the children learn? What will the children learn?   Children will be able to do? What will the children be able to do? What will the children learn? What will the children learn?   Children will be able to weave using their own design and create a 3D object using their design. What will the children remember? What will the children remember?   What will the children remember? What will the children remember? What will the children remember? What will the children remember?   What will the children remember? What will the children			•	What will the children be able	e to do?
Examining soils, making fossils and investigating and touching lots of rocks. What will the children remember? Our visit to Butser Farm and seeing different types of homes from different periods of Prehistory. Key Vocabulary char, sandy, fossil, observations, What will the children remember? What will the children remember? What will the children nemember? What will the children learn? What will the children learn? What will the children be able to do? Say French words for animals Key vocabulary. Children will learn how to weave and create a storage unit. Mat will the children learn? Children will learn how to participate in athletic events. What will the children learn? Children will learn how to play hockey.   What will the children remember? How to weave and where weaving originated from. What will the children remember? What will the children remember? Why power and accuracy are important to keeping play alive. What will the children remember? What will the children remember? Why power and accuracy are important to keeping play alive. What will the children remember? Why tris important to have speed & agility in running events. Accuracy & power in	What will the children remember?					French
Investigating and touching lots of incesting and touching lots of rocks. Our visit to Butser Farm and seeing different types of homes from different periods of Prehistory. connecting devices to a network. Children will learn about a variety of animals.   What will the children remember? What will the children network. What will the children network. Children will learn how to participate in athletic events.   What will the children be able to do? Say French words for animals Key Vocabulary   Children will learn how to weave and create a storage unit. What will the children be able to do? PE - Indoor Athletics   What will the children be able to do? What will the children network to participate in athletic events. What will the children learn?   Children will be able to weave using their own design and create a 3D object using their design. What will the children remember? What will the children remember?   What will the children remember? What will the children remember? What will the children remember? What will the children remember?   What will the children remember? What will the children remember? What will the children remember? What will the children remember?   What will the children remember? What will the children remember? What will the children remember? What will the children remember?   What will the children remember? What will th					•	What will the children learn?
rocks. different types of homes from different periods of Prehistory. animals. Mint will the children remember?   What will the children remember? What will the children remember? What will the children remember? What will the children remember?   What will the children learn? Children will learn how to weave and create a storage unit. What will the children learn? What will the children learn? PE - Indoor Athletics   What will the children be able to do? What will the children learn? Children will learn how to wave and create a storage unit. What will the children learn? Children will learn how to play hockey.   What will the children remember? What will the children learn? Children will be able to do? What will the children learn?   Children will be able to do? What will the children learn? Children will be able to do? What will the children learn?   Children will be able to do? Puplis will be able to describe and demonstrate the way our bodies move when participating in hockey. To also be able to stop/trap the hockey ball effectively. Additionally be able to participating in daccuracy with a certain level of control. What will the children remember?   What will the children remember? What will the children remember? What will the children remember?   Wow to weave and where weaving originated from. Key Vocabulary Key Vocabulary Wh						Children will learn about a variety of
Key Vocabulary Minerals, rocks, soil, grainy, soft, hard, clay, sandy, fossil, observations, periods of Prehistory. Key Vocabulary chronology, Stone Age, Bronze Age, Iron Age. What will the children remember? What inputs, processes and outputs are and why computers are connected. What will the children be able to do? Say French words for animals Key vocabulary: Les Animaux, je suis (I am) from the verb 'être (to be).   DT - Weaving What will the children learn? Games - Hockey PE - Indoor Athletics   What will the children be able to do? What will the children be able to do? What will the children be able to do?   What will the children remember? What will the children be able to do? What will the children be able to do?   What will the children remember? What will the children fearn? What will the children be able to do?   What will the children remember? What will the children fearn? What will the children be able to do?   What will the children remember? What will the children remember? What will the children remember?   What will the children remember? What will the children remember? What will the children remember? What will the children remember?   Wohat will the children remember? What will the children remember? What will the children remember? What will the children remember?   Wohat will the children remember? What will the children remember? What wi			-			animals.
Key Vocabulary Wat will the children learn?   Children will be able to do? What will the children be able to do?   What will the children remember? What will the children remember?   What will the children remember? What will the children remember?   What will the children remember? What will the children remember?   What will the children remember? What will the children remember?   What will the children remember? What will the children remember?   What will the children remember? What will the children remember?   What will the children remember? What will the children remember?   What will the children remember? What will the children remember?   What will the children remember? What will the children remember?   What will the children remember? What will the children remember?   What will the children remember? What will the children remember?   What will the children remember? What will the children remember?   What will the children remember? What will the children remember?   What will the children remember? What will the children remember?   What will the children remember? What will the children remember?   What will the children remember? What will the children remember?<	TOCKS:			What will the children reman	abor?	What will the children be able to do?
Minerals, rocks, soil, grainy, soft, hard, clay, sandy, fossil, observations, chronology, Stone Age, Bronze Age, Iron Age. and why computers are connected. Key vocabulary: Les Animaux, je suis (1 am) from the verb 'être (to be).   DT - Weaving What will the children learn? Mhat will the children learn? Mhat will the children learn? Children will learn how to play hockey. PE - Indoor Athletics   What will the children be able to do? What will the children be able to do? What will the children be able to do? What will the children be able to stop/trap the hockey ball effectively.   Additionally be able to stop/trap the hockey ball effectively. What will the children remember? What will the children remember?   How to weave and where weaving originated from. What will the children remember? What will the children remember? What will the children remember?   Weave, loom, warp, weft, prototype, aesthetics, Key Vocabulary Key Vocabulary Key Vocabulary   Weave, loom, warp, weft, prototype, aesthetics, Key Vocabulary Key Vocabulary Key Vocabulary	KoyVacabulary	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·				Say French words for animals
Age. Les Animaux, je suis (l am) from the verb 'être (to be).   DT - Weaving Games - Hockey   What will the children learn? What will the children learn?   Children will learn how to weave and create a storage unit. What will the children be able to do?   What will the children be able to do? What will the children remember?   Children remember? What will the children remember?   What will the children remember? What will the children remember?   What will the children remember? What will the children remember?   What will the children remember? What will the children remember?   What will the children remember? What will the children remember?   Work wave, loom, warp, weft, prototype, aesthetics, Key Vocabulary   Weave, loom, warp, weft, prototype, aesthetics, Key Vocabulary						Key vocabulary:
Clarky, safidy, lossify dibits, Pge. verb 'être (to be).   DT - Weaving What will the children learn? Games - Hockey PE - Indoor Athletics   What will the children learn? Children will learn how to play hockey. PE - Indoor Athletics   What will the children be able to do? What will the children be able to do? Pupils will be able to describe and demonstrate the way our bodies move when participating in hockey. To also be able to stop/trap the hockey ball effectively. Additionally be able to pass the ball with power and accuracy with a certain level of control. What will the children remember?   What will the children remember? What will the children remember? What will the children remember?   Work to weave and where weaving originated from. Key Vocabulary Weave, loom, warp, weft, prototype, aesthetics,   Weave, loom, warp, weft, prototype, aesthetics, Key Vocabulary Key Vocabulary			Stone Age, Bronze Age, Iron		ecteu.	Les Animaux, je suis (I am) from the
DT - Weaving What will the children learn? Children will learn how to weave and create a storage unit. Games - Hockey What will the children learn? Children will learn how to play hockey. PE - Indoor Athletics What will the children learn? Children will learn how to play hockey.   What will the children be able to do? What will the children be able to do? Pupils will be able to describe and demonstrate the way our bodies move when participating in hockey. To also be able to spart the ball with power and accuracy with a certain level of control. What will the children remember?   What will the children remember? What will the children remember? What will the children remember?   What will the children remember? What will the children remember? What will the children remember?   Work weave, loom, warp, weft, prototype, aesthetics, Key Vocabulary Key Vocabulary What will, trapping, stopping, attacking, defending, parsing requiring turping control possession Key Vocabulary	clay, sandy, rossil, observations,	Age.
What will the children learn?What will the children learn?What will the children learn?Children will learn how to weave and create a storage unit.What will the children be able to do?What will the children be able to do?What will the children be able to do?What will the children be able to describe and demonstrate the way our bodies move when participating in hockey. To also be able to stop/trap the hockey ball effectively. Additionally be able to pass the ball with power and accuracy with a certain level of control.What will the children remember?What will the children remember?What will the children remember? Why power and accuracy are important to keeping play alive.What will the children remember? What will the children remember? Why wit's important to have speed & agility in running events. Accuracy & power in throwing eventsKey VocabularyKey Vocabulary Running, trapping, stopping, attacking, defending, passing rereliving turning control possessionKey Vocabulary Running, trapping, torping, attacking, defending, passing rereliving turning control possessionKey Vocabulary Running, trapping, stopping, attacking, defending, Running, turping, iavelin, speed bounces, Running, turping control possessionKey Vocabulary Running, turping control possession
What will the children learn?What will the children learn?What will the children learn?Children will learn how to weave and create a storage unit.What will the children be able to do?What will be able to weave using their own design and create a 3D object using their design.What will the children remember?What will the children remember?What will the children remember?What will the children remember?What will the children remember?Wow to weave and where weaving originated from.Key VocabularyKey VocabularyWeave, loom, warp, weft, prototype, aesthetics,Key VocabularyKey VocabularyWeave, loom, warp, weft, prototype, aesthetics,Running, trapping, stopping, attacking, defending, passing regelying turning control possessionKey Vocabulary	DT Wooving		Comer Heckey			DE Indoor Athlatics
Children will learn how to weave and create a storage unit.Children will learn how to play hockey.Children know how to participate in athletic events.What will the children be able to do?What will the children be able to do?What will the children be able to describe and demonstrate the way our bodies move when participating in hockey. To also be able to stop/trap the hockey ball effectively. Additionally be able to pass the ball with power and accuracy with a certain level of control.What will the children nemember? What will the children remember?What will the children remember? What will the children remember?What will the children remember? Why power and accuracy are important to keeping play alive.What will the children remember? Why to's important to have speed & agility in running events. Accuracy & power in throwing eventsKey VocabularyKey Vocabulary Running, trapping, stopping, attacking, defending, nassing receiving turning control possessionKey Vocabulary Running, trapping, stopping, attacking, defending, nassing receiving turning control possessionKey Vocabulary Running, trapping, stopping, attacking, defending, nassing receiving turning control possessionKey Vocabulary Running, turping control possessionKey Vocabulary Running, turping control possession	•		-
Children will learn how to weave and create a storage unit.What will the children be able to do? Pupils will be able to describe and demonstrate the way our bodies move when participating in hockey. To also be able to stop/trap the hockey ball effectively. Additionally be able to pass the ball with power and accuracy with a certain level of control.What will the children nemember? Pupils will be able to describe and accuracy are important to keeping play alive.What will the children remember? What will the children remember?What will the children remember? What will the children remember?What will the children remember? Why power and accuracy are important to keeping play alive.What will the children remember? What will the children remember? Why wit's important to have speed & agility in running events. Accuracy & power in throwing eventsKey Vocabulary Weave, loom, warp, weft, prototype, aesthetics, Weave, loom, warp, weft, prototype, aesthetics,Key Vocabulary Running, trapping, stopping, attacking, defending, Running trapping turping control possessionKey Vocabulary Running trapping turping control possession Running turping control possessionKey Vocabulary Running turping control possession Running turping control possessionKey Vocabulary Running turping control possession Running turping turping control possessionKey Vocabulary Running turping turping control possessionKey Vocabulary Running turping control possession Running turping turping control possessionKey Vocabulary Running turping control possession Running turping turping turping control possessionKey Vocabulary Running turping turping turping control possession Running turping turping turping turping control possessionKey Vocabulary Running turping tu	What will the children learn?		What will the children learn?	-	M/bat will th
unit.What will the children be able to do? Pupils will be able to describe and demonstrate the way our bodies move when participating in hockey. To also be able to stop/trap the hockey ball effectively. Additionally be able to pass the ball with power and accuracy with a certain level of control.What will the children nemember? Pupils will be able to discribe and demonstrate to he way our bodies move when participating in different athletic events. To also be able to jump effectively for distance. Additionally be able to participate in team events such as relay running.What will the children remember? How to weave and where weaving originated from.What will the children remember? Why power and accuracy are important to keeping play alive.What will the children remember? Why it's important to have speed & agility in running events. Accuracy & power in throwing eventsKey Vocabulary Weave, loom, warp, weft, prototype, aesthetics, measing receiving turning control possessionKey Vocabulary Running, trapping, stopping, attacking, defending, passing receiving turning control possessionKey Vocabulary Running, turning control possession	What will the children learn?			?		ne children learn?
What will the children be able to do?What will the children remember?Pupils will be able to describe and demonstrate the way our bodies move when participating in hockey. To also be able to stop/trap the hockey ball effectively. Additionally be able to pass the ball with power and accuracy with a certain level of control.Pupils will be able to describe and demonstrate the way our bodies move when participating in different athletic events. To also be able to jump effectively. Additionally be able to pass the ball with power and accuracy with a certain level of control.What will the children remember?What will the children remember? Why power and accuracy are important to keeping play alive.What will the children remember? Why it's important to have speed & agility in running events. Accuracy & power in throwing eventsKey VocabularyKey Vocabulary Running, trapping, stopping, attacking, defending, passing receiping turning control possessionKey Vocabulary Running, trapping, stopping, attacking, defending, passing receiping turning control possessionKey Vocabulary Running, trapping, stopping, attacking, defending, passing receiping turning control possessionKey Vocabulary Running, trapping, stopping, attacking, defending, passing receiping turning control possessionKey Vocabulary Running, hurdles, jumping, javelin, speed bounces, haton five strides shuttle cock throws throwing		ate a storage		?		ne children learn?
What will the children be able to do?way our bodies move when participating in hockey. To also be able to stop/trap the hockey ball effectively. Additionally be able to pass the ball with power and accuracy with a certain level of control.way our bodies move when participating in different athletic events. To also be able to jump effectively for distance. Additionally be able to participate in team events such as relay running.What will the children remember? How to weave and where weaving originated from.What will the children remember? Why power and accuracy are important to keeping play alive.What will the children remember? Why power and accuracy are important to keeping play alive.What will the children remember? Why it's important to have speed & agility in running events. Accuracy & power in throwing eventsKey Vocabulary Weave, loom, warp, weft, prototype, aesthetics, massing receiving turning control possessionKey Vocabulary Running, trapping, stopping, attacking, defending, passing receiving turning control possessionKey Vocabulary Running, trapping, stopping, attacking, defending, passing receiving turning control possessionKey Vocabulary Running, trapping, stopping, attacking, defending, passing receiving turning control possessionKey Vocabulary Running, trapping, stopping, attacking, defending, passing receiving turning control possessionKey Vocabulary Running, trapping, stopping, attacking, defending, passing receiving turning control possessionKey Vocabulary Running, trapping, stopping, attacking, defending, passing receiving turning control possessionKey Vocabulary Running, trapping, stopping, attacking, defending, passing receiving turning control possession	Children will learn how to weave and crea	ate a storage	Children will learn how to pl	? ay hockey.	Children kn	ne children learn? ow how to participate in athletic events.
Children will be able to weave using their own design and create a 3D object using their design.also be able to stop/trap the hockey ball effectively. Additionally be able to pass the ball with power and accuracy with a certain level of control.different athletic events. To also be able to jump effectively for distance. Additionally be able to participate in team events such as relay running.What will the children remember? How to weave and where weaving originated from.What will the children remember? Why power and accuracy are important to keeping play alive.What will the children remember? Why power and accuracy are important to keeping play alive.What will the children remember? Why it's important to have speed & agility in running events. Accuracy & power in throwing eventsKey Vocabulary Weave, loom, warp, weft, prototype, aesthetics, passing receiving turning, control possessionKey Vocabulary Running, trapping, stopping, attacking, defending, passing receiving turning control possessionKey Vocabulary Running, hurdles, jumping, javelin, speed bounces, baton five strides chuttle cock throws throwing	Children will learn how to weave and crea	ate a storage	Children will learn how to pl	? ay hockey. le to do?	Children kn What will th	ne children learn? ow how to participate in athletic events. ne children be able to do?
Children will be able to weave using their own design and create a 3D object using their design.Additionally be able to pass the ball with power and accuracy with a certain level of control.effectively for distance. Additionally be able to participate in team events such as relay running.What will the children remember? How to weave and where weaving originated from.What will the children remember? Why power and accuracy are important to keeping play alive.What will the children remember? Why power and accuracy are important to keeping play alive.What will the children remember? Why to's important to have speed & agility in running events. Accuracy & power in throwing eventsKey Vocabulary Weave, loom, warp, weft, prototype, aesthetics, massing receiving turning control possessionKey Vocabulary Running, trapping, stopping, attacking, defending, passing receiving turning control possessionKey Vocabulary Running, turning, control possession passing receiving turning control possessionKey Vocabulary Running, turning control possession passing receiving turning control possession	Children will learn how to weave and creat unit.	ate a storage	Children will learn how to pl What will the children be ab Pupils will be able to describ	? ay hockey. le to do? e and demonstrate the	Children kn What will th Pupils will b	ne children learn? ow how to participate in athletic events. ne children be able to do? we able to describe and demonstrate the and create a 3D object using their design.Additionally be able to pass the ball with power and accuracy with a certain level of control.effectively for distance. Additionally be able to participate in team events such as relay running.What will the children remember?What will the children remember?What will the children remember?How to weave and where weaving originated from.What will the children remember?What will the children remember?Key VocabularyKey VocabularyKey VocabularyWeave, loom, warp, weft, prototype, aesthetics,Key VocabularyKey VocabularyWeave, loom, warp, weft, prototype, aesthetics,Running, trapping, stopping, attacking, defending, passing receiving turning control possessionKey VocabularyWeave, loom, warp, weft, prototype, aesthetics,Running, turning control possessionKey Vocabulary	Children will learn how to weave and creat unit.	ate a storage	Children will learn how to pl What will the children be ab Pupils will be able to describ way our bodies move when	2 ay hockey. le to do? be and demonstrate the participating in hockey. To	Children kn What will th Pupils will b way our boo	ne children learn? ow how to participate in athletic events. ne children be able to do? be able to describe and demonstrate the dies move when participating in
What will the children remember?   How to weave and where weaving originated from. What will the children remember? What will the children remember?   Key Vocabulary Key Vocabulary Key Vocabulary   Weave, loom, warp, weft, prototype, aesthetics, Key Vocabulary Key Vocabulary   Weave, loom, warp, weft, prototype, aesthetics, Running, trapping, stopping, attacking, defending, passing receiving turning control possession Key Vocabulary	Children will learn how to weave and creat unit. What will the children be able to do?		Children will learn how to pl What will the children be ab Pupils will be able to describ way our bodies move when also be able to stop/trap the	2 ay hockey. le to do? be and demonstrate the participating in hockey. To be hockey ball effectively.	Children kn What will th Pupils will b way our boo different at	ne children learn? ow how to participate in athletic events. ne children be able to do? be able to describe and demonstrate the dies move when participating in hletic events. To also be able to jump
What will the children remember?How to weave and where weaving originated from.What will the children remember?Why power and accuracy are important to keeping play alive.What will the children remember?Key VocabularyWhy power and accuracy are important to keeping play alive.Key VocabularyKey VocabularyWeave, loom, warp, weft, prototype, aesthetics,Key Vocabulary Running, trapping, stopping, attacking, defending, passing receiving turning control possessionKey Vocabulary Running, trapping, stopping, attacking, defending, passing receiving turning control possession	Children will learn how to weave and creat unit. What will the children be able to do? Children will be able to weave using their	own design	Children will learn how to pl What will the children be ab Pupils will be able to describ way our bodies move when also be able to stop/trap the Additionally be able to pass	ay hockey. le to do? e and demonstrate the participating in hockey. To hockey ball effectively. the ball with power and	Children kn What will th Pupils will b way our boo different at effectively f	ne children learn? ow how to participate in athletic events. The children be able to do? be able to describe and demonstrate the dies move when participating in hletic events. To also be able to jump for distance. Additionally be able to
What will the children remember?How to weave and where weaving originated from.Key VocabularyWeave, loom, warp, weft, prototype, aesthetics,Weave, loom, warp, weft, prototype, aesthetics,Neg VocabularyWeave, loom, warp, weft, prototype, aesthetics,Neg VocabularyWeave, loom, warp, weft, prototype, aesthetics,Neg VocabularyNeg Vocabulary <td>Children will learn how to weave and creat unit. What will the children be able to do? Children will be able to weave using their</td> <td>own design</td> <td>Children will learn how to pl What will the children be ab Pupils will be able to describ way our bodies move when also be able to stop/trap the Additionally be able to pass</td> <td>ay hockey. le to do? e and demonstrate the participating in hockey. To hockey ball effectively. the ball with power and</td> <td>Children kn What will th Pupils will b way our boo different at effectively f</td> <td>ne children learn? ow how to participate in athletic events. The children be able to do? be able to describe and demonstrate the dies move when participating in hletic events. To also be able to jump for distance. Additionally be able to</td>	Children will learn how to weave and creat unit. What will the children be able to do? Children will be able to weave using their	own design	Children will learn how to pl What will the children be ab Pupils will be able to describ way our bodies move when also be able to stop/trap the Additionally be able to pass	ay hockey. le to do? e and demonstrate the participating in hockey. To hockey ball effectively. the ball with power and	Children kn What will th Pupils will b way our boo different at effectively f	ne children learn? ow how to participate in athletic events. The children be able to do? be able to describe and demonstrate the dies move when participating in hletic events. To also be able to jump for distance. Additionally be able to
How to weave and where weaving originated from. alive. events. Accuracy & power in throwing events   Key Vocabulary Key Vocabulary Key Vocabulary   Weave, loom, warp, weft, prototype, aesthetics, Key Vocabulary Key Vocabulary   Running, trapping, stopping, attacking, defending, Running, trapping, stopping, attacking, defending, Running, hurdles, jumping, javelin, speed bounces,	Children will learn how to weave and creat unit. What will the children be able to do? Children will be able to weave using their and create a 3D object using their design.	own design	Children will learn how to pl What will the children be ab Pupils will be able to describ way our bodies move when also be able to stop/trap the Additionally be able to pass accuracy with a certain level	ay hockey. le to do? the and demonstrate the participating in hockey. To the hockey ball effectively. the ball with power and of control.	Children kn What will th Pupils will b way our boo different at effectively f participate	ne children learn? ow how to participate in athletic events. The children be able to do? be able to describe and demonstrate the dies move when participating in hletic events. To also be able to jump for distance. Additionally be able to in team events such as relay running.
Alive. alive. events. Accuracy & power in throwing events   Key Vocabulary Key Vocabulary Key Vocabulary   Weave, loom, warp, weft, prototype, aesthetics, Running, trapping, stopping, attacking, defending, passing receiving turning control possession Key Vocabulary   Running, trapping, stopping, attacking, defending, passing receiving turning control possession Burning, hurdles, jumping, javelin, speed bounces, batop five strides, shuttle cock throws, throwing	Children will learn how to weave and creat unit. What will the children be able to do? Children will be able to weave using their and create a 3D object using their design.	own design	Children will learn how to pl What will the children be ab Pupils will be able to describ way our bodies move when also be able to stop/trap the Additionally be able to pass accuracy with a certain level What will the children remen	ay hockey. le to do? e and demonstrate the participating in hockey. To hockey ball effectively. the ball with power and of control. mber?	Children kn What will th Pupils will b way our boo different at effectively f participate What will th	ne children learn? ow how to participate in athletic events. ne children be able to do? be able to describe and demonstrate the dies move when participating in hletic events. To also be able to jump for distance. Additionally be able to in team events such as relay running. ne children remember?
Weave, loom, warp, weft, prototype, aesthetics, Running, trapping, stopping, attacking, defending, Running, hurdles, jumping, javelin, speed bounces,   Meave, loom, warp, weft, prototype, aesthetics, Running, trapping, stopping, attacking, defending, Running, hurdles, jumping, javelin, speed bounces,	Children will learn how to weave and creat unit. What will the children be able to do? Children will be able to weave using their and create a 3D object using their design. What will the children remember?	own design	Children will learn how to pl What will the children be ab Pupils will be able to describ way our bodies move when also be able to stop/trap the Additionally be able to pass accuracy with a certain level What will the children remen Why power and accuracy are	ay hockey. le to do? e and demonstrate the participating in hockey. To hockey ball effectively. the ball with power and of control. mber?	Children kn What will th Pupils will b way our boo different at effectively f participate What will th Why it's imp	ne children learn? ow how to participate in athletic events. ne children be able to do? oe able to describe and demonstrate the dies move when participating in hletic events. To also be able to jump for distance. Additionally be able to in team events such as relay running. ne children remember? portant to have speed & agility in running
Weave, loom, warp, weft, prototype, aesthetics, Running, trapping, stopping, attacking, defending, Running, hurdles, jumping, javelin, speed bounces,   Meave, loom, warp, weft, prototype, aesthetics, Running, trapping, stopping, attacking, defending, Running, hurdles, jumping, javelin, speed bounces,	Children will learn how to weave and creat unit. What will the children be able to do? Children will be able to weave using their and create a 3D object using their design. What will the children remember?	own design	Children will learn how to pl What will the children be ab Pupils will be able to describ way our bodies move when also be able to stop/trap the Additionally be able to pass accuracy with a certain level What will the children remen Why power and accuracy are	ay hockey. le to do? e and demonstrate the participating in hockey. To hockey ball effectively. the ball with power and of control. mber?	Children kn What will th Pupils will b way our boo different at effectively f participate What will th Why it's imp	ne children learn? ow how to participate in athletic events. ne children be able to do? oe able to describe and demonstrate the dies move when participating in hletic events. To also be able to jump for distance. Additionally be able to in team events such as relay running. ne children remember? portant to have speed & agility in running weave, loom, walp, well, prototype, aesthetics,	Children will learn how to weave and creat unit. What will the children be able to do? Children will be able to weave using their and create a 3D object using their design. What will the children remember? How to weave and where weaving origina	own design	Children will learn how to plan What will the children be ab Pupils will be able to describ way our bodies move when also be able to stop/trap the Additionally be able to pass accuracy with a certain level What will the children remen Why power and accuracy are alive.	ay hockey. le to do? e and demonstrate the participating in hockey. To hockey ball effectively. the ball with power and of control. mber?	Children kn What will th Pupils will b way our boo different at effectively f participate What will th Why it's implevents. Acc	ne children learn? ow how to participate in athletic events. ne children be able to do? oe able to describe and demonstrate the dies move when participating in hletic events. To also be able to jump for distance. Additionally be able to in team events such as relay running. ne children remember? portant to have speed & agility in running uracy & power in throwing events
assing receiving turning control possession like strides shuttle cock throws throwing	Children will learn how to weave and creat unit. What will the children be able to do? Children will be able to weave using their and create a 3D object using their design. What will the children remember? How to weave and where weaving origina	own design	Children will learn how to pl What will the children be ab Pupils will be able to describ way our bodies move when also be able to stop/trap the Additionally be able to pass accuracy with a certain level What will the children remen Why power and accuracy are alive. Key Vocabulary	ay hockey. le to do? te and demonstrate the participating in hockey. To the ball with power and of control. mber? te important to keeping play	Children kn What will th Pupils will b way our boo different at effectively f participate What will th Why it's implevents. Acconst	he children learn? ow how to participate in athletic events. he children be able to do? be able to describe and demonstrate the dies move when participating in hletic events. To also be able to jump for distance. Additionally be able to in team events such as relay running. he children remember? portant to have speed & agility in running uracy & power in throwing events
	Children will learn how to weave and creat unit. What will the children be able to do? Children will be able to weave using their and create a 3D object using their design. What will the children remember? How to weave and where weaving origina Key Vocabulary	own design ated from.	Children will learn how to pla What will the children be ab Pupils will be able to describ way our bodies move when also be able to stop/trap the Additionally be able to pass accuracy with a certain level What will the children remen Why power and accuracy are alive. Key Vocabulary Running, trapping, stopping,	ay hockey. le to do? the and demonstrate the participating in hockey. To the hockey ball effectively. the ball with power and of control. mber? the important to keeping play attacking, defending,	Children kn What will th Pupils will b way our bou different at effectively f participate What will th Why it's imp events. Acc Key Vocabu Running, hu	ne children learn? ow how to participate in athletic events. he children be able to do? oe able to describe and demonstrate the dies move when participating in hletic events. To also be able to jump for distance. Additionally be able to in team events such as relay running. he children remember? portant to have speed & agility in running uracy & power in throwing events lary urdles, jumping, javelin, speed bounces,
	Children will learn how to weave and creat unit. What will the children be able to do? Children will be able to weave using their and create a 3D object using their design. What will the children remember? How to weave and where weaving originat Key Vocabulary Weave, loom, warp, weft, prototype, aest	own design ated from.	Children will learn how to pla What will the children be ab Pupils will be able to describ way our bodies move when also be able to stop/trap the Additionally be able to pass accuracy with a certain level What will the children remen Why power and accuracy are alive. Key Vocabulary Running, trapping, stopping,	ay hockey. le to do? the and demonstrate the participating in hockey. To the hockey ball effectively. the ball with power and of control. mber? the important to keeping play attacking, defending,	Children kn What will th Pupils will b way our bou different at effectively f participate What will th Why it's imp events. Acc Key Vocabu Running, hu	ne children learn? ow how to participate in athletic events. he children be able to do? oe able to describe and demonstrate the dies move when participating in hletic events. To also be able to jump for distance. Additionally be able to in team events such as relay running. he children remember? portant to have speed & agility in running uracy & power in throwing events lary urdles, jumping, javelin, speed bounces,